

Amateur radio, an "experimenting hobby", should be regulated as per present rules. Total amateur population vs. a select few, shouldn't require rule changes. Good amateur practice is to police our own. Frequencies aren't "owned" !! Operators should move their VFO's !! Audio and bandwidth should always be part of the experimenting. This is a hobby !